WHAT'S INCLUDED — IN DETAIL

£1,200

University Shortlisting & Profiling

We don't just hand you a list — we study your academic background, research interests, and career goals to identify UK universities and supervisors who are genuinely aligned with your profile. This increases the probability of a positive response significantly.

£1,800

Research Proposal Writing

The research proposal is the most critical document in a PhD application. Our experts craft a compelling, academically rigorous proposal tailored specifically to the interests of your target supervisor — making your application stand out from hundreds of others.

£900

SOP & Academic CV Preparation

Your Statement of Purpose and CV tell the story of who you are as a researcher. We help you articulate your academic journey, research motivations, and future aspirations in a way that's honest, compelling, and tailored to each university's expectations.

£1,100

Application Submission Support

From filling in online portals to organising supporting documents, reference letters, and transcripts — we handle the entire submission process with you. Nothing gets missed, no deadlines are overlooked, and every application goes out polished and complete.

£1200

Interview Preparation

PhD interviews in the UK can be rigorous and highly technical. We conduct personalised mock interviews simulating real supervisor meetings, help you anticipate challenging questions about your proposal, and give you structured feedback to build confidence.

£1,700

Funding & Scholarship Guidance

Securing full funding is the goal — and we know the landscape well. We identify UKRI, departmental, and external scholarships that match your profile, help you craft funding statements, and advise on how to position yourself as a strong funded candidate.

£1,100

Visa & Pre-Departure Support

Once you have your offer, the journey isn't over. We guide you through the UK Student Visa (Tier 4) process, document preparation, CAS letters, and help you prepare practically and mentally for the move — so your transition to the UK is smooth and stress-free.
